

Wild Waves Chardonnay is composed entirely from grapes grown in the Gisborne area. A light touch of French oak enhances the complexity and the body of this elegant wine.

Tasting notes:

Nice and clear wine with yellow hue, intense aromas of citrus, peach and white flowers on the nose. Mouthfeel is rich, long and well balanced. Lingering finish on stonefruit.

Technical information:

Alcohol content: 13% vol.

Total Acidity: 5.3 g/L

pH: 3.58

Residual Sugar: 2,5 g/L

Production: 2 000 bottles.